

FAVORITE POEM PROJECT 2017

The brainchild of former U.S. Poet Laureate Robert Pinsky, The National Favorite Poem Project was launched in 1997 to celebrate the sheer pleasure of poetry with the public at large. Pinsky put out a call for favorite poems and received eighteen thousand responses from Americans of diverse regions, ages, and backgrounds.

This is the fifteenth year that Newburyport High School will create a Favorite Poem Project right here in Greater Newburyport. We invite everyone to submit a favorite poem, along with a brief statement of why this poem has personal meaning. We are not looking for literary analysis, but rather for an explanation of your connection to the poem. Students will review and select 24 poems to be read at the Firehouse Art Center at the end of the Newburyport Literary Festival on Sunday, April 30, At 1 PM.

Send a favorite poem by Friday, April 7th to: dszabo@newburyport.k12.ma.us OR mail to:
Deborah Szabo, Newburyport High School, 241 High St., Newburyport, MA 01950

If your poem is not in English, please include a translation.
