What can you be doing now to raise your kids to be healthy, strong and happy teenagers?

This one hour workshop is designed to introduce parents to a positive youth development approach to parenting and provide you with an understanding of what qualities, characteristics and experiences protect young people.

Wednesday, March 15th
6:30-7:30pm at the
Brown School
40 Milk Street

Grab a friend or your significant other and come join us... we promise it will be fun and you will leave feeling good about the great parent you already are!

I SUPPORT YA youth assets

Presented by Andrea Egmont, Director of Newburyport Youth Services and the BEACON Coalition
For more information, call 978-465-4434

Geared to parents of kids with ALL ages, this event is free and free childcare will be provided by amazing NYS staff.