

Dear Parents and Families:

Warm weather is coming, and so is our Spring Paws for Books Fair! Starting on March 26th (Preview Days: March 26 & 27, Shopping Days: March 28 & 29, April 2 & 3), the fair rolls out with fresh, new titles and the return of fabulous fan favorites. This is a great opportunity to pick up some books to take to the park during Spring Break – or stock up in advance for those long, fun-filled trips to the beach or pool.

To learn everything you need to know about the book fair, visit www.breshub.com and click on the Book Fair button. You can look at the interactive flyer, check out dates and times of operation, sign up to be a volunteer (which entitles you to 10% off your purchases!), visit our online store (opens at midnight on Wed. 3/21), and sign up for the latest, greatest way to send your student off to shop at the fair, free from cash, checks, or credit card wielding adult.

With an eWallet account, you can set a spending limit (adjustable at any time) for your student, enable them to check-out at the register without further financial oversight/assistance. What's more, your eWallet's credit card is not charged until a purchase is made, and the unused portion of the allowable limit remains uncharged, and disappears on the last day of the fair like Cinderella's carriage at midnight. What could be easier?
